Exceptional quilt show highlights Fair 2000

Lois Yaremkevich wins Grand Aggregate award

A kaleidoscope of color created by no less than 55 handcrafted quilts set the stage for this weekend's Elk Point Agricultural Fair at the A. G. Ross Arena. An array of 35 quilts lined almost half the arena, with 20 more covering a horseshoe of frames in the middle of the floor.

Many of the quilts were heirlooms passed down from generation to generation. One was created by the great-grandmother of Elk Point senior Violet McFadyen and was completed in 1888. Two others were made by her grandmother prior to 1900. Other vintage quilts were made by Irene Magnusson's mother and aunt, and some by unknown crafters.

Many of the quilts were group efforts, one dating back to a 1979 Further Education class taught by Edith Mitchell, two others made in 1987 and 2000 by the Ferguson Flats Ladies Club and several made by the "trip around the block" method.

Two other special quilts were Elk Point's Bicentennial quilt, created by the late Barbara Milholland and her son-in-law Marshel Pelech, and the Climb Thru Time Museum quilt won in a fundraising raffle by Sharon Kuhn.

The craft of quilting is now being taken up by a new generation. One quilt was recently completed by local teen Tracie Czerkawski as a home-schooling art project, and shows an innovative pattern portraying the Big Dipper constellation.

The balance of the arena was well filled with Fair exhibits, many of them created by Lois Yaremkevich, who won this year's Grand Aggregate award donated by Union Pacific Resources, a plaque from CJ Petroleum and section awards in Baking, Canning, House Plants, and Seniors. Convenor Debbie Orr presented the latter award on behalf of Irene Magnusson, while Maryann Kozicky presented a rustic birdhouse from Meadowview Garden Centre for the House Plants prize and Lyn Young presented the Baking award from Elk Point Co-op, commenting that entries in that sec-

■ Sheep killed, missing

Wild wind fells farm shelterbelt

One sheep was dead and another missing after a wild wind swept through the farmstead of Bill and Sheila Kulczycki, northwest of Elk Point, on Sunday, August 6.

The early evening storm brought a torrent of rain, small hail and very strong wind which left scores of mature trees toppled. The family's sheep herd was spooked by the storm and raced to shelter, with one lamb killed and another still missing the afternoon after the storm. "It may be in the dugout or under some of these trees," Kulczycki said.

Some of the trees appeared to have been twisted by an incredible force, and the Kulczyckis aren't sure that this was not the result of a small tornado.

Mrs. Kulczycki "just couldn't believe it" when she looked outdoors e after the storm had passed. Much of the shelterbelt she had nurtured years ago as a young bride lay in a tangled mess, but just across the farmyard, the cages and shelters which house the family's Fur and Feather Petting Farm escaped major damage. None of the caged animals and birds were harmed by the storm.

The Kulczycki family now faces a major clean-up job which could take weeks to complete.

Break-and-enters reported

Elk Point RCMP received three different Break and Enter reports in rural areas between August 4 and 11. Two of the residences broken into were along the Moose Hills Road while the other was north of Whitney Lakes. In the two former incidents various items including coins, tools and food were stolen. The incident north of Whitney Lakes involved property damage in excess of $1000.

Police ask rural residents that if they see suspicious persons or vehicles at a neighbor's residence, to write down the vehicle's license plate number and/or vehicle/suspect description as this information can provide police with details that can lead to an arrest.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Elk Point RCMP Detachment at 724-3829 or 724-3964 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).

1. I will work for action: Canada's leaders must make a list and deal with the top ten most important issues facing our country today. Our current leaders lack vision and I see no work effort on their part to tackle the real issues.

2. I will work to build a better FUTURE for our great country: I am indebted to our past and obligated to our future. I will work to provide real hope and opportunity for our young people, our families and our elderly.

3. I will work for the future of our families, the middle income working class people and our local communities. Having been a working class person my entire life, I know the pressures these times are creating for our families. I have lived most of my life on our farm or in a rural community and I know the challenges facing our farmers and small town businesses.

Block Parent Program misconceptions cleared up

By Deanna Easthope
FCSS Director

In Elk Point, are you one of the people who thought about becoming a Block Parent but had some questions about the program? Well, here are some common misconceptions about the program. If after reading the following information, you find you are interested in the program, please give the FCSS Office a call at 724-3800.

Who can become a Block Parent? Anyone over the age of 18 who has been successfully screened by the police can become a Block Parent. You can be single, married, divorced; you can work or stay at home; you do not have to have children; you can be grandparents.

Is there much work involved? No! It will not alter your life style or make demands on your time. When you are "available," (which means you are home and able to answer the door to someone requiring assistance), simply display the sign in a window visible from the street. Then, if a child is bothered by a stranger or a bully, is sick, hurt or lost, he knows that there is a "SAFE ADULT" in that home who will help.

How often are Block Parent homes used? This varies. Some may never be used while other homes may be used several times. Bullying appears to bet the cause of the majority of incidents. Remember that the very presence of the Block Parent sign in a window acts as a deterrent to most kinds of troublemakers; hence, the less homes that are used, the safer our community is.

Who can use a Block Parent home? ANYONE in any type of distress. A lost toddler, children, teens, adults and senior citizens.

But I am never home to be a Block Parent! The program is a 24-hour service - but left to the convenience of the Block Parent. Therefore, there are many times we can put up the sign for a few hours, weekends, evenings, Halloween night, holidays, etc.

We have no children so we cannot be a Block Parent! PLEASE - you are needed also! Anyone 18 years and over who passes the police screening can be a Block Parent.

But I don't want to let strangers into my home! You DON'T have to let anyone into your home unless the problem is very obvious, or it is a very young child. Get the information and telephone number at the door, ask the individual to wait outside and then make the call immediately.

The sign being down is an invitation to vandals! DEFINITELY NOT! Because the sign is down does not necessarily mean there is no one at home. It may not be convenient at that moment to have it up... Remember, the children are taught to use a Block Parent home only when the sign is displayed.

CRIME STOPPERS

■ Some time during the early morning hours of August 5, 2000 the old Hi Hi Store on Highway 897 in Frog Lake caught fire. It has not been determined what or possibly who may have started the fire. The store had been unoccupied and boarded up for the past year. The fire consumed the whole building and did not spread to the surrounding field.

■ Some time between Wednesday, August 2 at 11:00 p.m. and Thursday, August 3 at 6:00 a.m., a break and enter occurred at Race Trac Gas, located at Highway 41 and Highway 646 south of Elk Point. Stolen were approximately 300 packages of cigarettes and cigars, with an approximate total value of $1500. Currently there are no suspects.

■ Some time between August 1 and 4, 2000 a dead cow was discovered in a field with its udder and tongue removed (apparently with a knife). This occurred approximately 4 km southwest of Elk Point. This is similar to an incident approximately 12 km northeast of Elk Point, reported on July 25, 2000 where a cow also had its udder cut off.

Anyone with information regarding any of the above incidents is asked to call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477) or the Elk Point RCMP Detachment at (780) 724-3829.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to 2000 for information leading to the arrest of the person(s) responsible for these or any other crime. You do not have to reveal your identity and if your tip leads to an arrest you qualify for an award.

Rural Health

The Government of Canada recognizes that rural communities have unique health care challenges. That is why we have:

- invested $18 million specifically for rural health initiatives such as the Office of Rural Health and a funding program for innovative health projects.
- invested $80 million in a program that includes telehealth projects connecting patients and health care professionals in rural areas with specialists.

These investments will lead to innovative approaches to make sure that the health care system is sustainable and responsive.

The Government of Canada is increasing its investment in health care and is working with the provinces and territories to strengthen health care.

Job safety enters the school curriculum

(CSC)-New workers-many fresh out of high school-suffer a disproportionate number of accidents, injuries and fatalities, often in their first six months of employment. Many young people are part-time and temporary workers, with less experience and familiarity of workplace hazards than older workers. Across Canada, compensation and health care costs for injuries to young workers are in the millions of dollars.

ALBERTA'S JOB SAFETY SKILLS FOR YOUNG WORKERS PROGRAM

To address this issue, the Job Safety Skills society developed as a partnership of industry, education, and government. Registered as a not-for-profit organization in Alberta, the Society has developed 75 credit hours of high school safety training that is now provided free to 334 schools in Alberta, seven in the Northwest territories, and even to the Mobil Oil Training Academy in Shanghai, China.

Within the approved curriculum, students are exposed to electrical safety, fire safety, confined space entry, ergonomics, WHMIS, TDG, personal protective equipment, WCB and OH&S regulations and processes, loss control, accident investigation, and development of safety programs. For the first time in Alberta, an Emergency First Aid and CPR course is embedded in the curriculum, and for the first time anywhere, a Farm Safety module is embedded in the curriculum. The program is widely acknowledged as the finest of its type in the world.

With over 6,000 students enrolled in the Job Safety Skills For Young Workers Program, the society expects to change the safety paradigm in Alberta and across Canada. Plans are now underway to introduce the program in every jurisdiction. For more information visit - www.safetyskills.ormed.com- the Society's Website.

TEA FIT FOR A QUEEN and croquet on the lawn were part of a local celebration honoring Queen Mother Elizabeth's 100th birthday. Ladies in flowery hats and nattily attired gentlemen converged on lace-covered tea tables to sip from bone china cups while watching a lively game of croquet on the adjoining lawn. The party was hosted by Sheila Thompson and Jim Hawkins on Friday, August 4.

Pack and eat a safe lunch

• Store your lunch in a cool area until mealtime; if refrigeration is not available, consider the next two tips.

• Use insulated containers or freeze water in empty 35mm film canisters or other leak-proof containers to keep lunches cold.

• Pack a small can or box of juice that has been frozen overnight to both chill your lunch and become a part of the meal.

• Wash fresh fruit and vegetables well before packing.

• Wipe lids of canned fruit juices, puddings and soups if you are going to consume contents directly from cans.

If you plan to go into the woods or on a sports outing, eat properly and your body will thank you.

• Don't leave on an empty stomach. You will very soon be hit by hunger pangs.

• You don't need to bring a lunch for a one or two hour activity, provided that you have taken the time to eat first.

• If the activity is longer than three hours, plan to bring along at least a snack and something to drink.

• Opt for foods that you can eat with your hands. Avoid canned foods and useless or heavy packaging.

Alberta supports low-income families through National Child Benefit

By Paul Langevin, MLA
Lac La Biche - St. Paul

More than 25,000 in low income families will soon receive higher back-to-school benefits or will become eligible for premium-free health benefits as a result of Alberta's participation in the National Child Benefit (NCB).The NCB is a federal-provincial partnership that brings governments together in the effort to reduce child poverty and assist parents as they move toward financial independence. Human Resources and Employment Minister Clint Dunford announced that two of Alberta's NCB-related programs, the Alberta Child Health Benefit and Supports for Independence, will be expanding.

In the case of the Alberta Child Health Benefit, income eligibility levels will be increased, making up to 2500 more children eligible for premium-free prescription drugs, eyeglasses, dental work, diabetic supplies and emergency ambulance transportation. Single-child families with incomes up to $21,214 are now eligible to receive the benefit. Eligibility levels for larger families will increase by $2000 per child.

Furthermore, the parents of approximately 23,000 school-aged children in families receiving Supports for Independence (SFI) will now receive higher allowances for school costs. Kindergarten students will now be eligible for a $50 benefit, elementary students $100 and junior/senior high students $175. These allowances are used to offset registration fees, school and gym supplies and other education-related costs.

This year, Alberta will invest a total of $30 million in NCB initiatives. The province will continue to support subsidized child care for 11,000 children, increased shelter allowances for 30,000 children in families on SFI, and programs to protect more than 300 children from prostitution.

If you would like to contact me on this or any other issue, I can be reached at Box 1848, St. Paul, Alberta, TOA 3A0.

Fishing Lake Metis Settlement holds Cultural Days

The Fishing Lake Metis Settlement Education Society hosted their annual Cultural Days on August 5 and 6. One of the many events and fundraisers was the fifth annual queen contest, which was a huge success. This year's winner was Leslie Callioux. She earned the title of queen through her hard work and determination that was demonstrated by raising $1167. She received several gifts for her time and effort put into selling tickets. The first runner up was Crystal Deschamps, second runner up was Lori-Kay Flamond. Congratulations to the winners and sincerest thanks to all the contestants who helped make this year's contest a success: Leslie Callioux, Crystal Deschamps, Barbara Fayant, Peggy McGillis, Lori-Kay Flamond, Helen Flamand and Maureen Delorme. All contestants received gifts for their efforts.

On behalf of the Fishing Lake Metis Settlement, thanks to the following sponsors for their donations to the Cultural Days Celebrations: Miller Thompson, Quick-E-Mart (Heinsburg), UFA (Elk Point), Igloo Building Supplies, Fayant Construction (Fishing Lake), Kelly's Closet (Elk Point), Poundmakers (St. Paul), Morris Cardinal (Edmonton). Without the assistance of these sponsors, the event would not have been such a success.

The winners of this year's Queen Contest Raffle were: first prize of $1000 - Brian Strahl, Elk Point; second prize of $500 - Cheyanne Flamond, Fishing Lake; third prize of $200 - Jerrika Barthel, Fishing Lake.

Congratulations to all the winners of this year's event.

CPCA wagons run in Saskatoon

Three days of racing wrapped up July 30 at Marquis Downs in Saskatoon with Grant Preece of Meadow Lake, SK winning the $3000 Dash for Cash with a time of 1:21.47. Jim Knight of St. Walburg, SK was second with 1:22.90, Gary Gorst of Meadow Lake third with 1:24.36 and Larry McEwen of Lloydminster fourth with 1:25.40.

The Dash for Cash times were significantly slower than the fastest times of the night, with three wagons outrunning Preece. Luke Tournier of Duck Lake, SK set a new track record that night with a rapid 1:19.26, beating his own record of 1:19.80 set last year. Tournier also won top day money in Friday's races.

what's NEWS at the LIBRARY?

A & A Traveling Show visits Elk Point Public Library

By Carlen Mutch
Summer Reading Program Coordinator

I must say that this week was quite a treat for me. Not only did I only have to work three days, I didn't have to prepare anything for the Summer Reading Program.

On Monday, due to the holiday, the library was closed and there was no junior program. On Wednesday, the girls from Northern Lights put on the program. This was open to both age groups and anyone else who wanted to come. We had quite a few kids show up and we crammed them in the program room.

The program was great with magic, balloon art and prizes. All the kids showed me their prizes and I was really impressed. Now next week they'll expect me to make flowers from balloons. I would like to thank Amy and Amanda for the program and their patience with the kids. It was really appreciated.

Vacation books

A reminder to everyone that we still have all our summer vacation books on display, so if you're planning something in the next few weeks, be sure to stop in and check them out. There are some really neat theme vacation books such as ballpark vacations, you may enjoy.

SPELLBOUND youngsters enjoyed the A and A Road Show.

Yaremkevich wins Aggregate

tion were double last year's number. Mrs. Yaremkevich is the Canning convenor, and said entries were down with only 10 exhibitors. Her award in that section came from the Empress Restaurant.

Second place in the Aggregate race went to Rose Kozicky, who accepted her prize from Petrovera Resources.

Third place and a prize from Golden Loaf Bakery went to a junior exhibitor, Kirsty Lindquist, who not only won the Junior award in Baking and the Junior Fair section, sponsored by J & J Oilfield Consulting and convened by Gisele Pederson, but won both the aggregate and Junior awards in Sewing, sponsored by Capitol Drugs and convened by Sheila Nelson.

Lyn Young was another multiple winner, winning a clock from Woody's Trophy and Gifts in the Fresh Fruit category convened by Katherine Shymkiw, and the prize donated by Wozniak Bulk Fuels in the Grains and Hay section.

Gisele Pederson also won two sections, Vegetables, convened by Katherine Shymkiw, where the prize was ovenware from Cal's Home Hardware, and Flowers, convened by Millie Orr, with a prize from the Alberta Treasury Branch. Brett and Kelsey Lindquist tied for the junior win in Vegetables, with Kelsey also winning the Junior Flowers.

First time exhibitor Angelina Christenson won the Knitting, Crochet and Weaving section convened by Sheila Nelson, with her prize donated by the Toronto Dominion Bank.

A phenomenal increase was noted by convenor Lesia Sherwin in the Photography section, with 175 entries compared to 64 last year. The Home Town Grocers prize went to Mrs. Sherwin, while Jan Kozicky won the junior award.

Entries in Arts, Crafts and Hobbies, sponsored by Elk Point Insurance were up 67% this year, with Verona Lea Flanders accepting the prize from convenor Denise Bjorkman. Junior winner was Laura Antonio.

Entries were down in Creative Writing, sponsored by the Elk Point Review, with Jennifer Flanders winning the 17 and Over category, Travis Lindquist the 12 to 16 group and Kristen Antonio, Brett Lindquist and Laura Antonio sharing the 11 and Under win.

Wayne Knight wins wagon meet in North Battleford

One of the final chuckwagon meets before the Canadian Professional Chuckwagon Association finals in Lloydminster this coming weekend was held in conjunction with North Battleford's Territorial Days Celebrations on August 8 and 9, with some excellent races on their newly renovated track. Wayne Knight of St. Walburg,SK led the way with the fastest single day time of 1:03.33 on Wednesday and was the show winner with a two day total time of 2:09.96. Second went to Luke Tournier of Duck Lake, SK with a total time of 2:10.33. Tuesday's day money winner, Bert Croteau of Bonnyville was third with a time of 1:10.53.

This past weekend, the CPCA wagons ran in Cold Lake, however results and the final standings going into the finals were still not available at press time.

The CPCA finals run Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoon and are sure to provide some very exciting race action as teamsters vie for the year end championship and the right to represent the CPCA at the 2001 Calgary Stampede Rangeland Derby.
